

Andrea Moreno

Bogotá - Colombia, ACC ICF
Shared Leadership Team Coach

Andrea Moreno is a Law professional by background. She has been an ontological coach since 2018. She served as the Administrative Director for the ICF Colombia Chapter from 2019 to 2021.

As an ACC-certified coach by the International Coaching Federation (ICF), Andrea lives with the conviction that every human being can generate a change in their structure if they have the tools that help them to do so. For this change to be coherent with their essence and remain permanent it must come from within, and be constant, building new habits, improving every day, and strengthening what generates value for them.

Andrea is co-founder of Gestart Broker, a company created to commercialize coaching methodologies. She is part of the Gestart community where she loves to lead mastermind groups to help visualize new ways to meet challenges and empower goals.

One of Andrea's passions is traveling as well as focusing her attention on the wonderful things that life gives and she loves to tell stories.

Areas of capability and interest include:

- Leadership Development
- Team Coaching Certification
- Executive Coaching
- Action Reflection Learning
